FARMVILLE.

Dr. Jarman, president of the Normal, informs your correspondent that it will require $5,000 to complete the buildings and the new and up-to-date science hall is an imperative need of the institution. He will ask of the Legislature at least an appropriation of $75,000. Let us hope that the panic will be over by that time. The lady principal of the school, Miss Fauntleroy is winning great reputation in the discharge of the duties incident to her important, delicate and difficult position. Her personal bearing is so queenly that her mere presence inspires respect and cheerful obedience. She seems born to command and the girls follow her as the soldiers did Stonewall. There are a great many things to be learned at school outside of books.

Farmville did its duty by the exposition though we had no Farmville day and none for Prince Edward. This was due to neglect on the part of town and county. The "Free State" of Lunenburg had its day, and though a rainy one it was marked by good cheer and a general good time. And to the credit of the local paper, the Victorna Times, it grew out of a paragraph in that paper. The editor simply suggested a "Lunenburg Day" and the people made it a success. The man who denies or doubts the power of printer's ink is indeed a sceptic. Business men who make money are public spirited and liberal advertisers and editors are leaders in their respective communities.

Our warehouse bells ring clear and strong and the weed is still being sold in open market. Prices are generally satisfactory.

Not only the Methodists, but all Farmville welcomes the return of Rev. Mr. Hatcher. He is not only a good preacher but a good citizen, good neighbor and a good friend.

The last German, which was given at Hotel Prince Edward, was a brilliant social event, and I am told that the largest of the gentlemen dancers was the most graceful. The girls were delighted to have him as a partner.

With the introduction of the pipe organ into the Presbyterian church the music was greatly improved. Miss Burgess, who is scarcely out of her teens, is an artist of real talent. The ladies of this church made $130 from their recent entertainment and now those of the Methodist church are preparing to do even better than that. What would our church do without them?

Mr. Paul Venable our veteran gardener, will fix our market with winter and early spring delicacies.

"Light house keeping" is the order of the day with us. Many of our ladies prepare breakfast and supper at their home and take dinner at some hotel or boarding house. The scarcity of cooks will give birth to many innovations. "Necessity is still the mother of invention."

The passenger who leaves the train during a heavy rainfall, finds mudless walkways from our depot to houses and hotels and finds it in his heart to bless our display, the author, no doubt, of much of evil but much of comfort as well.

Money does not hang on trees but the New York Jurry is influenced to the use of scrip.

Mrs. Guerrant and children, of Christiansburg, are spending the winter in the home of her father, Mr. James A. Armistead.

Dr. Milledge and family have moved into their home, recently vacated by Mr. Garland, who moved to Richmond.

Mrs. Charles A. Price is busy entertaining transient and permanent boarders, and though sometimes without a cook, is never without a good meal. These Southside Virginia housewives are equal to emergencies. If the negroes imagine they are dependent on their wages they are laboring under big mistake. Would that no black face had ever appeared in Virginia. What a queen among states she would have been. But she will wear the richest coronet of them all. That is if she can rid herself of the cancerful influences of the politician.

With our railroads improving and mercantile work than they can do, manufacturing establishments all busy and farmers never so prosperous, the talk of panic is nonsense.

Mr. W. H. Robertson is having erected a large factory near the Tidewater and Western railroad, and I am glad to know that it is not another tobacco factory. I am not advised just what he will manufacture, whether hubs or spokes, or wagons or furniture, but I know he will take some of our raw material and convert it into a commodity of more value. This is one of Farmville's urgent needs, and as Mr. Robertson has succeeded in all his undertakings victo y will crown his new venture. We need scores of just such men.

Mr. Louis D. Jones, of New Store, was late taking in the exposition, but he and his son Mr. "Paul" were visitors during the last week of the great show, and I am quite sure that two more appreciative visitors were not in attendance from opening to closing hour.

Drs. Anderson, Gills and Crute attended the recent meeting of the Medical Society of Virginia at Chase City, and no doubt received fresh inspiration for their work by contact and communion with their brethren of the profession. If members of other professions feel the necessity of association I do not know why farmers should not appreciate a like necessity. With them as with others, it must be true that in union there is strength.

Rev. Mr. Hatcher preached the Thanksgiving sermon this year at the Baptist church, and a good collection was taken for the benefit of the poor of the town. They are "always with us" but the angel, charity, is with us too.

There is a James Gray McAlister, Jr., at Hampden Sidney. He made his debut on the 1st day of November, and in honor of the event the student body demanded a holiday and agreed that the day should be observed through the years which are to follow. The happy mother readily acquiesced in the desire of the boys, so that the venerable institution has had another vacation day added to its list while another home circle has been gladdened and brightened by the arrival of a haven sent member.

We are getting to be so luxurious as a people that our county treasurer is to have a grandlithe walk way from his office to Main street.

Public Sale of Land.

The tract of 100 acres of land belonging to Chas. C. Goin situated in Clover Hill district in Appomattox county will be sold by the Farmville Building & Trust Co. at public auction in front of the Courthouse, at Farmville on December 10th, 1907 to satisfy deed of trust in favor of said Company.

JNO. R. MARTIN, Sec.

If the president is still hunting the octopus, he must have decided to go on a "still hunt."

Of course money talks as it always has—only it is inclined to use the long-distance phone, a good deal right now.

The great majority of American citizens only know that there are new $10 coins in circulation because they read it in the papers.

Forty thousand Philadelphians registered who did not vote. Probably they were reformers who asked themselves the question: "What's the use?

The English love a King so well that the Kaiser was enthusiastically received in London, where he made one of those speeches which end in a hurrah. Yet they say that Wilhelm is physically in a bad way.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the children start too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be to correct the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and the better and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is realized. It is sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

A PROMPT, EFFECTIVE REMEDY FOR ALL FORMS OF RHEUMATISM

Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Kidney Trouble and Kindred Diseases.

GIVES QUICK RELIEF

Applied externally it affords almost instantaneous relief. Taken internally its results are being effected by thousands, formally, purifying the blood, dissolving the poisonous substance and removing it from the system.

MR. S. D. BLAND

Of Boston, Ga., writes:

"I have suffered for a considerable number of years with Lumbago and Rheumatism in my shoulder, back, and feet all the remedies that I could get hold of I tried, but got no relief, until I took a package of your DROPS, and after using one bottle I feel quite free from pain. I have used in all three bottles, and am now entirely well and hearty as can be. I am 70 years old, and I feel like a young man. I am glad to recommend DROPS to all my friends."

DR. C. L. GATES

Hancock, Miss., writes:

"I take pleasure in stating that I have used a few bottles of your DROPS, and they have done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken. I would be glad to have you send me a bottle of DROPS, as I have a number of friends who are afflicted with Rheumatism, and I want to recommend your DROPS to them. I have been a sufferer for years, and DROPS have done me more good than all the medicine I have ever taken. I would be glad to have you send me a bottle of DROPS, as I have a number of friends who are afflicted with Rheumatism, and I want to recommend your DROPS to them."

I'll Not Forget.

I'll not forget, I'll not forget,
The gladsome words you spoke to me
When clouds around were dripping wet,
With sorrows tears—you came to me
The kindly hand that pressed mine own
The smile to banish all regret,
The words, the glance, the softened tone,
I'll not forget, I'll not forget.

The world goes on in busy round
Nor do they take the time to say,
The word to lighten burdens borne
Or smile upon one on their way.
You passed a mile and never dotted there,
And wept to see my sun bed set,
You gave a smile of beauty rare,
I'll not forget, I'll not forget.

When life's days for me have done,
Its joys and sorrows all are o'er,
And when I have triumphant run
Life's race—and on the other shore,
I'll watch to know that voice, that smile,
That talked to banish life's regret
And in my happiness the while,
I'll watch and wait, and not forget.

Buckingham.

There will be a dramatic entertainment at Buckingham Courthouse on the night of December 26th. The net proceeds from the sale of admission tickets will be used for the improvement of the side walks of the village. Tickets for adults will cost 15 cents; children 10 cents. After the acting is over an oyster supper will be served and the net proceeds from which will go to the Confederate monument fund. The young people have selected "The Loan of a Lover" as one of the plays to be presented and the local talent will have ample scope for development.

The roads leading from this place to Farmville were worn slick last week by the continuous travel of wagons laden with tobacco. I was offered $5.75 for lugs at Dillwyn and sold for $6.50 at Farmville and sold long leaf for $11.75, short leaf for $8.00 and raw tobacco bring $13, but from $6 to 9 was about the ruling price. On Wednesday the market had about recovered from the effects of the glut of the week before. There seems money in plenty to supply the trade and the Farmville people were boasting that they had not had to make use of scrip.

Mr. Frank Agee has advertised his personal property for sale on the 10th, and I hear that Mr. Thomas Maxey has bought his farm and that Mr. Agee will go over about Gordonsville to live. Frank is a hustler and we are loth to give up such citizens.

Mr. Wm. P. Ellis and Miss Minnie Ellis will go South on an extended visit which may last through the winter months. Buckingham county can send forth no more popular representatives of society than these two.

Mr. Kvan Langhorn has had a recent visit from his father.

A school house is to be built near St. Andrew's church which is to be used as a border school and is being taught now in the church by Misses Ruth Swoope and Lizzie Patteson.

Dr. T. B. Lacey came out from Farmville to hold services at St. Peter's church on the 4th inst.

Miss Lena Hall will spend some time in Richmond while the legislature is in session.

There has been a decline in the price of a good many farm products. Pork, hides and flour each is lower, although I heard of flour retailing for as much as $7.50 in Buckingham the past week. How do you figure this when wheat was quoted at $1.12? Dressed pork is 7 to 7½ cents and green hides are quoted at 5c on the Richmond market.

Harrison Shoomaker shot a big deer square in the face not more than thirty steps from him and the dogs ran him up the road by the old Taylor place and Edmund Shoomaker met the big buck square in the road and threw his axe at him and struck him with it, but he kept on to Slate river at which point the dogs took him. This was a very large deer and it looked to me as if it was very fat as he loped along with his tongue out.

Andersonville.

These Buckingham folks will not let me alone Mr. Editor, so I am going to report them to you. Why I was taken hold of today by one of our Buckenites, a very good fellow he is, and as old Dr. Jones said about Col. Flood, a pretty man, and told if I did not let him alone he would give me a drubbing. I had been telling something about his courting, he is a widower you know, and they are very cunning in the courting line.

I peeped in on our Board of Supervisors. I thought that few counties had a better looking or more business one. I felt and at hearing Griggs' parting words January meeting two new comers in, Haynes and Spencer, good and true men they are. And the clerk's office, wh I think every clerk's office ought to have a lady assistant The office was full of men, not a drunken man or a vulgar word, it was all business. I shall hereafter vote for married men for clerks When does Rolph's time end. I'll move to Appomattox to vote against him if he does not get him a wife

Now the comical folks are after me again about the Andersonville school building, says a deed subsequent to deed recorded in No. 9, page 249. No Bro., one prior in No. 7, page 111, consideration $50, is recorded, it was for the old school building, built of logs by W. E. McCraw and E. V. Anderson when Mr. I. H. Fribus was President and Mr. G. D. Saunders, Secretary and situated on the old plank road on land then owned by J. P. Morgan, afterwards deeded to W. B. Anderson and wife and they got the fifty dollars, so says the deed, if I can read it correctly, that was in the 80's. The good book says or comes near saying an honest confession is good for the soul. Bro. have you been telling the wrong tale on your neighbors and don't the records prove it? Search the records and scripture too.

Well, let's talk of pleasant things. We have a great deal if we will think of it. I heard of an old fellow once who endeavored to do so but gave as an excuse he had lost his front teeth and ugly words come by the score out.

The first quarterly conference for West Buckingham held today—bad day, only two churches reported, Trinity and Bethel. It was said by some that we have the best Presiding Elder in the conference. Mrs. Addie Spencer said he preached a fine sermon at Trinity Sunday evening. Next quarterly conference will be held at Woodlawn. Is it too far Omohundro and Glenfall good men to come and hear a good sermon and see a nice new church.

We are sorry to report the continued sickness of two old veterans, Wm. Meggerson and Ned Steger. They are both confined to the house and would be glad to see their old friends and comrades and talk, talk of old times and how we fit and run away, and lived to fight another day. Well, we old boys are getting to be children again and the Master said "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Sorry also to hear Mr. Branch Gilliam is confined again to the house. He suffers intensely at times.

Miss Lucy McCraw has been under medical treatment but is better now.

Mrs Lola Bullard, one of Dr. Nowlin's patients, is better.

Dr. Morris has a patient at New Store.

And another Doctor had a patient out at church Sunday.

Hurrah for Jobs. He starts from the part of single blessedness the 26th. I hear he will embark at New Store church without fear of wind or wave with as good mate as can be found anywhere. God's blessing on them both.

Good bye Mr. Editor until after Christmas. I am looking for the loved ones to be home again.

A Columbia University professor says evolution is nothing but a series of lucky accidents. Hereafter when a man is bumped by an automobile and gets heavy damages he may know that he is merely evolting according to program.

Sheppards.

Well the new graded school at Sheppards is a success. Thirty scholars the first day and increasing daily. Misses Binford and Smith have already made themselves popular. We take off our hats to Superintendent Twyman and our school board. Thanks, gentlemen. May you live long and prosper. We'll make it a high school next.

Now if our handsome and popular young supervisor will just help us a little bit on road improvement we will feel still happier. A word to the wise, &c.

A gentleman came into my store the other day and slid, "I want to ask you about this money panic" I said, "my friend, I've been so busy getting in Christmas goods that I haven't had time to think much about it, but let us see. How is our corn crop?" "Fine" he said, "best for years." How about your meat supply?" "Oh, I'll have plenty and some to sell." "Well, can you sell your eggs, taters, potatoes, &c?" "Yes indeed, I nev er got better prices in my life" "Well, now my friend, I don't see how say panic in Wall Street is going to hurt you. Maybe you owe the commission merchant though?" "No I don't said he, I don't owe a cent on my tobacco crop" Now Mr. Editor, there are lots of men in Buckingham just in this man's good fix, and yet we read in the papers about a "panic" I don't pretend to understand it, but when the farmers are out of deb', a many of them are, and getting good prices for their produce I don't see why the country shouldn't prosper.

Yes, we went to Jamestown and Rev. Mr. Bell didn't pain any to rosy a picture of it. It was a fine exhibit and if it continues next year I want to go again and take some of boys and girls along too. By the way, letters like Mr. Bell's are the right sort. "Just scatter the sunshine all along life's way." I does not pay to be pessimistic.

"God reigns and the government at Washington still lives."

Who said it? When? and Where?

Rev. A. L. Carson comes back to Smyrna, but we have a new Presiding Elder, Rev. W. W. Lear. Last Sunday the secretary read the financial report of the charge, $2,150 raised last year, just a little over the assessment, but the balance is on the right side of the ledger. We want to go "up grade" a little faster next year, always upward and onward!

Concord church looks pretty nice with a new coat of paint and new blinds and doors. Our Baptist brethren are all right. We keep on the lookout all the time to keep up with them. But we rejoice in their prosperity.

St. Peters Episcopal church at Curdsville has been repaired and painted on the inside at an expense of about $100. That's progress too. Good for St. Peter!

Wha's the matter with the Appomattox and Buckingham telephone lines? We can talk to Black stone and Charlotte Courthouse, why not Appomattox. Stir 'em up Mr. Editor.

Manteo.

Miss Mary Morris is spending ing some time in Richmond.

Mr. G. H. Wilkins and Miss Lelia Armistead, who have been boarding with Mrs. E. S. Morris, have returned to Lynchburg for Christmas.

Mr. H. W. Dabney and Miss E. P. Morris are expected at Oak Lawn to spend Christmas.

Misses Mabel and Ruth Swoope, spent Thanksgiving in Richmond.

Miss Ida Morris spent several days at Wingina last week.

Mr. H. D. Antrim has just returned from Lynchburg.

Master C. Y. Morris had the misfortune to cut his little toe very badly.

Mrs. Davy Ragland has returned from a short stay in Lynchburg.

The Detroit News says Mr. Taft deliberately dropped his glasses in Seattle and picked them up without a grunt. Picture post cards showing him performing that feat unt would have a big sale.

APPOMATTOX.

INTERESTING STORIES ABOUT HOME FOLKS.

Our Correspondents relate the News of the County.

Bent Creek.

It has been so long since I 'sat wrots for the paper I think perhaps some of your readers think I have retired from the list of correspondents, but such is not the case.

A sad bereavement has caused this long silence.

Christmas is fast approaching and the annual preparation is going on notwithstanding the fact that many of our loved ones have been called away. Death has indeed been abroad in this community and many families have felt the chastening hand.

The weather has been nice for the season and a great many farmers as well as timber men have been hauling to this place. All hands who are interested in the tie business are in king a rush to get their ties in by the 1st of January, as Johnson & Briggs will not quote prices after that time.

Miss Geneva Wells spent several days in Lynchburg last week.

Madam rumor has it that there will be several December brides in this community. The writer only knows one that is said to be certain.

On December 24th at 2 o'clock, p. m., at Liberty Chapel, Miss Carey J. Phelps and Mr. Whitcomb P. Wells will be joined in the holy bonds of wedlock. All friends of both parties are cordially invited to attend the marriage.

Miss Fannie Dixon is in Lynchburg at this writing.

Down in the Corner.

As it has been quite a while since I have seen anything from this place I will try and give a few items, although times are quite dull.

Sitting by my window thinking things over a little, the voices of the children at play floated up to me. Presently there came a clear call, merry with the joy of life. "Oh, let's have so se fun." Oh, what a great thing it is to always be cheerful and lively. Dear readers, too many of us take life and its duties too seriously, perhaps all of us do. I am not sure, and it is high time we learned better—it is time we learned to take the pleasure that naturally belongs to us, and to find enjoyment in little things. If we will cut this fun-loving spirit which is a part of every nature, we are doing ourselves and the world about us a grevious wrong.

Thanksgiving passed off very quietly in this neighborhood—turkeys were very scarce, but every one has the fatted pig with plenty of nice sausage and ribs.

Much tobacco has been sold and I believe very satisfactory prices have been received.

Very little fall plowing has been done as yet.

We are sorry to note the continued illness of Mrs. E. V. Fore, at her home near here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Agee visited relatives near here on Saturday and Sunday last.

Mrs. Joe Blanton and children, of Cumberland, spent several days of la t week with her mother, Mrs. Emma Fore.

Mr. N. B. Southall, wife and little daughter, have returned from a trip of several months to New York Baltimore and other places of interest.

Mrs. John Cook has been very sick for several days, but we hope she may soon be well again.

Mrs. Alice Addleman, of near here, spent a very pleasant day in Farmville last Wednesday.

Mr. M. T. Agee, of Cumberland, visited relatives here recently.

Mr. Fred Johnson is quite sick at his home near here.

Hog killing, cutting wood and going to town seems to be the present occupation now a days, getting ready for Christmas, which is always here. How rapidly this year has passed away, here we are almost on the threshold of another year. Let us all be thankful for each and every blessing of last year. That is good advice, isn't it? There's something to be thankful for every one we may look.

Suffer, street or market house.

There is the dear home nook.

There's something to sing praises for, The wheat cribs are they.

We make the whole year happy round, A glad thanksgiving day.

Throat Coughs

Ask your doctor about these throat coughs. He will tell you how deceptive they are. A tickling in the throat often means serious trouble ahead. Better explain your case carefully to your doctor, and ask him about your taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
